

Hash House Harriers Fashion

Since time began (well, 1978, which is practically prehistoric), it has been a well-established fact in the world's top fashion circles that Brighton Hash Harriers never simply “run” — they strut the trails like it's Milan Fashion Week.

Over the years, we've worked with the most exclusive names in haute couture — Vershashy, Hash Vuitton, Coco Ha-shanel, Bouncer — to create our timeless, limited-edition, priceless (literally worthless, but don't tell anyone) T-shirts. Each one is a bold statement of sweat, mud, and beer stains, hand-crafted to perfection by elite designers armed with marker pens and a vague idea.

We would especially like to thank John (Bouncer) Biggins for generously sharing his archive collection: a treasure trove of rare textiles, faded glory, and cotton masterpieces now so valuable they could probably fetch at least a pint down the pub.
